

Faculty Program for University of Education Partner

Greetings from National Taipei University of Education, Taiwan.

We cordially invite you to our Faculty Program that will take place in Taipei from 26th December 2019 to 1st January 2020.

National Taipei University of Education is the oldest university in Taiwan. With 123 years history, NTUE specializes in teacher training and education research. We are greatly pleased and honored for having more and more partnership and cooperation with many Universities of Teacher Education (Pädagogische Hochschule) in Europe.

Based on our popular and successful short-term 'Language and Cultural Program for international students', this year we expand and open it to faculty members of our partners. This faculty program will be a platform for academic networking between participating institutions and an opportunity to further collaboration.

By attending this program, you will have the chance to visit schools, know fellows within your field, participate language and cultural courses, and sightsee around the city.

This program is applicable for faculty who would like to express his/her interest in collaboration opportunity and contribute to the program in workshop and Lecture.
