Ludwigsburg University of Education is seeking applicants to fill the following position:

Tenure-Track-Professorship for Philosophy with focus on Ethics and Ethics-Pedagogy (W1 with Tenure Track W3)
(initially limited duration according to § 51 Abs. 7 LHG BW)

Reference Number: 20-55

Responsibilities: Teaching (4 SWS; after positive evaluation 6 SWS) and research in the fields of Ethics, Ethics-Pedagogy and education research; mentoring in school practice; active involvement in academic self-administration.

Requirement: University degree suitable to the subject matter (State Examination) in the field of Philosophy and Ethics; extraordinary PhD; research focus in the area of Ethics and Ethics-Pedagogy; own teaching practice in schools (cf. § 51 Abs. 2 LHG BW).

This professorship is offered within the framework of Germany’s Joint Federal State Funding Programme for Junior Academics. The recruitment process additionally is subject to the requirements for appointing junior professors as stated in Section 51 (2) and the requirements for professors as stated in Section 47 (3) of the Baden-Wuerttemberg State Higher Education Act (LHG). Evaluation process is based on the quality assurance criteria for tenure track professorships at Ludwigsburg University of Education (see: https://www.ph-ludwigsburg.de/infos-juniorprofessuren.html).

Ludwigsburg University of Education aims at increasing the proportion of women and people with diverse gender in its employment.

Disabled applicants with adequate qualification will be preferentially considered.

Ludwigsburg University of Education especially invites academics with international profiles to apply.

Applications along with the usual documents under the reference number stated above should be sent until 19.03.2020 to the Rector of Ludwigsburg University of Education, Post Box 220, 71602 Ludwigsburg, Germany.

Please send us your completed application form (http://www.ph-ludwigsburg.de/3848.html).

In case of queries: +49 7141 140-450 or rektorvorzimmer@ph-ludwigsburg.de.

Additional Information about the university is available at www.ph-ludwigsburg.de.